The Final Impact - The Fifth Season

Verse

No mercy in the moshpit
Or silence during rain
No shadows during heatwaves
And everyone there goes insane
No worries, other rules, crazy people everywhere
Join the pure vitality, the fifth season of the year

Chorus

Welcome to another world of pleasure and groove
No regulated frequency and endless fun is prooved
Welcome to another world, it happens now and here
Join the pure vitality, welcome to the fifth season of the year!

Verse

Glimpses during concerts and secret love affairs
It's a very special temper here, there's nothing to compare
Even spree in life is vital, so hide the things you have to care
Take your downtime from the routine now and overspend you here!

Chorus

Welcome to another world of pleasure and groove
No regulated frequency and endless fun is prooved
Welcome to another world, it happens now and here
Join the pure vitality, welcome to the fifth season of the year!

Bridge

It's a special temper now
There's nothing to compare
Let us feast together now
Welcome to the fifth season of the year!

Chorus

Welcome to another world of pleasure and groove
No regulated frequency and endless fun is prooved
Welcome to another world, it happens now and here
Join the pure vitality, welcome to the fifth season of the year!
