The Final Impact - Fear.Hate.Despare

Verse

Your home in smoke and ashes
Your wife is sick and weak
A life in sheer oppression, no room for save escape
Your child will have no future within these cruelties
Dawns of hope are burning like almost everything

Chorus

Did you ever realize why they have to go?
They leave everything behind and march into the unknown
Have you ever seen your life bursting into bites?
What the hell is wrong with your mind?

Verse

Farewell between the ruins, maybe it is the last
They have to leave their families convinced to take the risk
They fight with aspiration but tears are dried with dust
While bombs are smashing in and their whole life gets crushed

Chorus

Did you ever realize why they have to go?
They leave everything behind and march into the unknown
Have you ever seen your life bursting into bites?
What the hell is wrong with your mind?
Do you think they leave out of cupidity?
Their broken dreams collide with your thoughts of hate
Don't you feel their fear? All peace has gone away
Try to save these words in your stiffened brain!

Bridge

Fear Hate Despair!
Fear Hate Despair!

Chorus (2x)

Did you ever realize why they have to go?
They leave everything behind and march into the unknown
Have you ever seen your life bursting into bites?
What the hell is wrong with your mind?
